Dear Community Partner,

What makes up a community? There are obvious components, such as its schools, residents, houses, parks, and local administration. As we make our list we can't forget your business, which plays a large role in the fabric of our community.

Residents use your goods and services, and most likely you even work side-by-side with some of them. Our local economy benefits from the activities related to the operation of your business through the sales and purchases generated every day. Together we all add to, and more importantly, depend on the relationships that keep our community healthy and growing.

We recognize that our schools, just like businesses, face new challenges every day., especially in the current economic climate. That's why it is so important for us to help and support each other. The Northern Valley Educational Foundation strives to enhance our community through the support of our schools, and our success depends on the assistance of key community partners like you.

The Northern Valley Educational Foundation, now in its sixteenth year of supporting innovative programs for our students, has continually funded enrichment programs to achieve its mission of furthering cultural diversity, technology, and the arts in all the Northern Valley schools. A partial list of past sponsored programs includes:

- *The Peace by Piece project encouraging students to achieve peace through art*
- *Heroes and Cool Kids peer to peer social consciousness program*
- *Emmanuel's Gift fostering an awareness of cultural diversity*
- *Supported the purchase of heart monitors and pedometers for the K-12 lifetime fitness physical education curriculum*

The planning for our Annual Golf Outing, Tuesday, June 30, 2009 at Emerson Golf Club, has begun. We hope we can count on you to help by becoming a sponsor, by donating goods or services for our raffle, or by bringing a foursome to play.

The Northern Valley Education Foundation welcomes your support in assisting us in our initiatives, and we hope you will join with us in striving to maintain the highest possible standards for excellence in education in the Northern Valley.

Sincerely,

Trustee, Northern Valley Educational Foundation
